SONOMA HAD FINE MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

American Legion Does Organization
Proud In Respect Paid To Heroes
On National Holiday

Decoration Day was fittingly observed by the American Legion who held exercises in Union Hall last Sunday morning. The ex-service men were joined by the churches and many citizens of Sonoma Valley in honoring our fallen heroes, and the program as arranged was most impressive.

The flag, the community service flag and a handsome wreath decked the stage where were seated Grand Army members, local divines, the president of Valley of the Moon Post American Legion and Frank Sprague. The State Home band was also in attendance.

On either side of the hall, drawn up in military line were the ex-service men in uniform, the army on one side and the navy on the other. Fulton Dal Porto was color bearer and displayed the colors throughout the ceremonies. The Boy Scouts in uniform had their color bearer also and proudly participated in the exercises.

After music by the band and a beautiful invocation by Rev. Burdett, the sermon on Decoration Day was delivered by Rev. Isaac Cookman. Mr. Cookman traced the history of the holiday and also civilization's rise for which brave men have fought and died. He spoke of our priceless heritage, of the dangers which confront us and of the vast good which may come out of the future through good citizenship, allegiance to high purpose and principal and application of the golden rule. Al Jensen rendered "The Palms" by special request and his singing added much to the splendid program.

Ralph Ring, ex-marine and president of the American Legion, then presented Frank Sprague, Spanish-American war veteran who gave a spirited address on the day, paying

ANGEL OF DEATH COMES TO VON HACHT FAMILY

The Angel of Death made a visitation to the Von Hacht home in Vallejo this week and summoned H. Von Hacht, aged father of Sonoma's former trustee, Wm. Von Hacht and of Carl Von Hacht. Deceased was a patient sufferer who had long endured the fatal illness with which he was stricken some years ago. Mr. Von Hacht was a man of many sterling qualities and before removing to Vallejo had resided at Santa Rosa. A widow is left to mourn him and besides the two sons, former Sonoma residents, another son who won honors as an engineer in the war survives deceased.

The funeral took place at Santa Rosa.

SPEND VACATION IN IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisk of Pacific Grove left for Iowa this week where they will visit old friends and relatives. Their little daughter, Philis is staying here with her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Buchanan. Mrs. Fisk's father who was an old soldier, is buried at Waverly, Iowa and she will visit the cemetery there and decorate his grave.

The trip is a vacation given Fisk by the S. P. company of which he is a trusted employee. He gets transportation for himself and wife to Waverly and return.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Gottenberg (nee Jones) spent Sunday and Monday with the John Gottenberg family. Mrs. Gottenberg formerly taught in the High School here.

glowing tribute to the immortal Lincoln and the great Americanism which he typifies.

Prayer and the rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner" concluded the program.

The American Legion and boy scouts then marched to Mountain Cemetery where the handsome wreath purchased by Valley of the Moon Post was placed upon the gate of the silent city. Graves of comrades were visited and decorated.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS COMING HERE TODAY FOR MISSION BELL CEREMONIES

PROGRAM IN WHICH DISTINGUISHED GUESTS WILL PARTICIPATE ARRANGED BY WOMANS CLUB TO HONOR OCCASION

"Bells of the Past whose long-forgotten music Still fills the wild expanse Tinging the sober twilight of the Present With color of romance. Oh solemn bells! whose consecrated masses Recall the faith of old— Oh tinkling bells! that lulled with twilight music The spiritual fold!"—Bret Harte.

Sonoma celebrates the restoration of the Mission bell to St. Francis de Solano. The sacred relic after many years absence has been returned to its hallowed home and to-day is to be formally hung in front of the old church and presented to the State of California, by the Womens Club to whom it was given by the Sutter heirs. Dr. Emma F. Merritt who saw to it that the bell was given back out of her father's collection in Sutter's museum that Sonoma might forever cherish its possession will be an honored guest and participant in the restoration ceremonies.

Governor Wm. D. Stephens has accepted an invitation to be present and will give an appropriate address. Donald R. Green, secretary of the Sutter Fort Commission and a trustee of the old mission property, will also take part in the program as will Senator Herbert Slater and Gilbert Weigle of the Examiner. Mr. Weigle is leader in the great movement recently organized to restore the old missions of California. He is steeped in mission love and mission sentiment and will be an inspiration in all he says regarding our mission and the other wonderful old missions of this state.

Local people who will participate in to-day's program include Mrs. Lulu Emparan, youngest daughter of General Vallejo; Miss Celia Thomson, his great granddaughter; Messdames R. P. Hill and Dora Stofen, committee members from the Sonoma Valley Womens Club who after eight years of tireless effort succeeded in bringing back the bell to old Sonoma. These two loyal club women having made a request for the bell from the Sutter collection, never lost heart that some day their request would be granted and at intervals interceded with the Sutter heirs for the beloved relic. Today's ceremony is a triumph for them and the club whose emissaries they were in the good work.

The program in its order this afternoon will be:

Music—Boys Band, Sonoma State Home.

Presentation of Bell to Sonoma Valley Womens Club.—Dr. Emma F. Merritt.

Unveiling of the Bell—Miss Celia Thomson, great granddaughter of General Vallejo.

Acceptance and Presentation of Bell —Mrs. Lulu Emparan, president of Sonoma Valley Womens Club.

Response—Donald R. Green, secretary of Board of Sutter's Fort Trustees.

Address—Governor Wm. D. Stephens "Sonoma County Landmarks"—Senator H. Slater.

Address "Mission Restoration"—Mr. Gilbert Weigle.

Blessing of Bell, Rev. F. Florian OMF "America."

NOTES ON THE MISSION

Some of the ancestors of the Vallejo family lie buried within the old church. Mrs. Vallejo's mother a devout Catholic was buried beneath the baptismal font that drops of holy water night fall upon her sacred resting place.

The story goes that there were formerly three bells at the Sonoma mission, one was taken to Vallejo, another to St. Mary's in San Francisco and the third sent to San Francisco for repair and in later years found in a brass foundry by ex-mayor Sutter of San Francisco who added it to his collection of relics and placed it in his museum at Sutter Heights.

The bell restored to Sonoma bears the inscription 1829 and the name of the Mission on the underside of the rim. It is without doubt the original authentic.

The original mission was built of boards, and whitewashed, but was well furnished and decorated in the interior with many articles of ornamentation presented by the Russians. This building was erected in 1824 and stood until 1827 when hostile Indians rose in rebellion and burned it to the ground.

Few realize the noble character of the work done in the mission San Francisco de Solano where zealous Franciscan fathers devoted their lives to civilizing and christianizing the pagan Indian.

When General Vallejo came to Sonoma in 1834 he found no building in the town, except the mission building, where he at once took quarters with his family. It was here in this long, low, tiled-roof building that his daughter, now Mrs. General Frisbie, was born.

Sonoma is one of the old mission towns of California, settled by Padre Jose Altamira in 1823. It is a note worthy fact that the fathers of the church established themselves in the chosen spots of the state. Southern California now so famous for its beautiful climate and productive soil was the original home of the Padres.

Where one finds the old adobe and tiled roofs, characteristic of the early settlers, they may be sure that God has there bestowed all his gifts. Yerba Buena in the warm mission belt in San Francisco, bears evidence of the care made in the selection of a site by the friars.

Father Altamira, who was sent north to establish a new mission in 1823, realized that Sonoma, sheltered by the hills and mountains and possessed of every possible natural beauty and advantage, was a most desirable site. It was admirable for mission purposes by reason of its climate, location, abundance of wood and stone and above all for the wonderful springs and streams.

On the 4th of July, 1823, the mission was formally established. Before the year 1824 there had been constructed a new adobe mission church 30x120 ft., 7 ft. high tiled roof and corridor, a padres' house, granary, seven houses for the guard besides the chapel. A loom was set up and weaving was in operation. Fruit trees were planted and 3000 vines were set out.

Three years later the Indians fell upon the new mission and destroyed it. Padre Altamira escaped with his life, but soon after went to Santa Barbara and thence embarked for the country. In 1827 San Francisco Solano sprang up from its ashes in charge of the virtuous and active Padre Fortuna and under the protection of the Presidio of the Golden Gate. From this time on until its secularization the mission passed through alternate seasons of prosperity and decline according to the movements of hostile Indian tribes. The mission community existed un-

BIDS FOR PAVING SONOMA TO BE ADVERTISED

Howe and Peters Engineers Confer With City Trustee Following Success of Bond Election.

Following the 8 to 1 victory for permanent street paving in Sonoma at the bond election last week, the bond buyers, Freeman, Smith, and Camp have been notified of the success of the election and that they may issue and take the bonds as agreed upon. Howe and Peters, the firm of engineers employed by the Board of Trustees were here Monday conferring with the Board and advising them as to procedure. Preliminary to advertising for bids they will send surveyors here to make surveys, cross sections, excavation estimates etc. The sewer proposition will be taken up first, in order that work on it may be completed by the time the street is to be laid. Bids will be advertised for as soon as all data is provided by the engineers.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE
The dangerous curve at the Bacala corner was the scene of another accident this week when a Buick car owned by the Cannobio family of Agua Caliente and driven by Miss Louise Cannobio collided with a Chevrolet car belonging to a Napa man by the name of Cutler. Miss Cannobio declares that Cutler did not sound his horn. Both cars were considerably damaged but no one was hurt.

D. B. Eppinger of Kenwood is being sued by E. Blomgren of Boyes as a result of a collision near Caliente last week in which Mr. Blomgren's car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mallet of San Francisco visited Mr. Mallet's mother, Mrs. John Mallet last Sunday. He is a highly regarded employee of the California Wine Association. His wife is employed at the Palace hotel.

til 1834, when Gen. M. G. Vallejo was chosen commissario to secularize San Francisco Solano and found the town of Sonoma.

The colonists arrived at Sonoma in March, 1835, and were temporarily accommodated in the Mission buildings of San Francisco Solano to await more definite arrangements.

SUPERVISORS GODDARD AND CUNNINGHAM VISIT SONOMA

Supervisors Goddard and Cunningham were in Sonoma valley Tuesday and while here met many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Goddard is one of Healdsburg's leading men and is highly regarded in his district.

Mr. Cunningham, although subjected to much criticism and hectoring by enemies on road matters is so strong in his district and has so many friends who resented the kind of an attack made by the recallers that it is now practically certain that the recall against him has been dropped.

Recall petitions have been looked on with suspicion and resentment wherever presented in Sonoma county and it has been an uphill job even at the 25c per name which circulators of petitions were offered, to buy the necessary names. Despite the report that enough signatures have been secured to ask for a recall against District Attorney Hoyle, it is believed that this expensive and unjust flaseo will die aborning too. If the recall against Mr. Cunningham has fallen flat, it should be apparent to everyone that it is only spite and spleen and deception by Hoyle's enemies that is keeping the fight going against him. The signatures said to have been secured are to be verified by the County Clerk and 35 days later an election may be called.

Supervisors Goddard and Cunningham branded the tactics of the recallers as most reprehensible in every particular and among other things resented the attack made on Sonoma Valley by one of the ring leaders. They predict that if a recall election ever comes off the voters of Sonoma County will show how they feel about being put to an expense of $8000 to $9000 to enable enemies of County officials to wreak their personal vengeance against them.

MISSION CREAMERY OCCUPIES NEW ANNEX

The Sonoma Mission Creamery is now occupying the annex recently built by Contractor R. E. Murphy on Spain St. to supply the much needed extra room for the fast growing business of the firm. The unit where cheese was formerly manufactured has been moved over into the new building and the machinery is operated by a steam plant which has been recently installed.

BIG CROWDS THRONCED SONOMA OVER HOLIDAY

Hundreds of Visitors Came By Train and Auto To Spend Decoration
Week End in Valley of Moon.

Sonoma Valley was thronged with visitors over the Decoration Day week end and the springs and resorts did a banner business. The railroads ran extra trains and standing room was at a premium. The auto busses ran extra machines, the San Rafael-Sonoma Valley line using six cars to carry passengers Saturday. Private cars and jitneys were also here by the hundreds and it was a wonder that no accidents resulted as night and day traffic teemed up and down the valley. Monday night a long line of machines stood at Sausalito all night before the ferries could get them home.

Boyes Springs theatre and baths did a capacity business, the theatre dancing surface being all too small to accommodate the increased number of visitors. The new pavilion at the baths was the scene of many dance lovers too and Manager Cause reported $60 taken in nickels in less than two hours. Wilson's jazz orchestra proved popular.

Fetters and Caliente were crowded and Caliente Villa was also popular with the crowds. El Verano resorts did a big business too.

The summer season in Sonoma valley has arrived.

CITY TRUSTEES MET IN JUNE SESSION

The Board of City Trustees met in regular June session Wednesday evening and passed the following bills:

Carlisle and Co., $8.72; J. G. Martey, 3.00; A. J. Martinson, 6.00; California Telephone and Light Company, 48.07; Sonoma City Water Works Co., 25.00; F. Canevari, 7.50; J. B. A strict enforcement of laws against speeding was urged upon the City Marshal. Repairs to the city hall and other routine matters were discussed.

Mrs. Erhardt Steiger was called to San Francisco last week by the death of her father, J. Leahy, prominent pioneer of the metropolis.

$54,000 VOTED FOR SONOMA'S STREETS

Let us tell the world that Sonoma is out of the rut, or soon will be, for the progressive voters of our city have voted $54,000 for permanent street improvements which will put the town in line with other up-to-date cities and give local business a momentum which it has never known before. We are pleased to chronicle this news for it reflects the type of citizenship which now dominates our city. Civic pride has asserted itself reassuringly.

We are now in a position to urge that state highway building too. We are to set our own house in order and can then call to account the powers holding up that Schellville-Santa Rosa road.

Word has gone forth that no new work will be undertaken and that counties must buy state highway bonds to get available money with which to carry on work within their borders. Sonoma County stands ready to buy bonds. Sonoma city is to build out to its city limits to make continuous a fine roadway through this section to the county seat and it is now up to the State Highway Commission to encourage the program and make good in this garden spot of California, entrance to which is practically barred through the dilatory policy of the Commission and state administration's indifference to Sonoma County. Here we are on the El Camino real—a well defined trail blazed by the padres of 1824. It was ordained that good roads should lead to the chain of Missions. Modern transportation methods make it imperative. The people of the state acknowledged our claim and our right to such roads. We have a state institution to whose doors good roads should lead. Reasons, there are many, yet we have no highway thus far other than the uncompleted Black Point cut-off, in the acquiescence of which three counties contributed generously and are still wondering if wisely, for the State has not seen fit to finish the job and their money is tied up without the returns which a completed and surfaced road would yield.

Now that Sonoma has voted $54,000 and is to build modern streets, and now that we have a good organization through which to voice our needs let us unite with other Sonoma County organizations and those of Napa and Marin and make a strong and determined fight for the state highway work which is coming to us and which will give us the right of way to success.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

By our little experiment of government operation of railroads our country stands to lose two billion dollars. Yet there are millions of careless and academic Americans who uphold the idea.

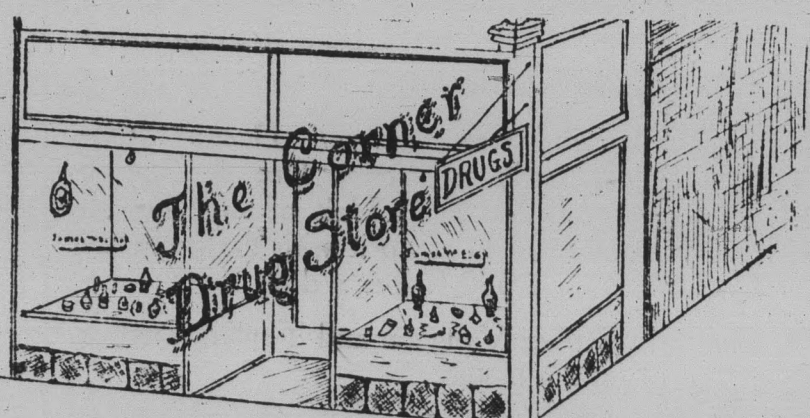

By our little experiment of government operation of railroads Congress mulets the taxpayers of two millions for a deficit. Yet Gompers and the whole railway brotherhood say its all right and want more of it.

Senator Smoot of Utah has evidence that many millions of dollars have been overpaid on war insurance under government operation by the bureau that has had charge of insurance for soldiers and their beneficiaries. Yet we have extensive clamor for state and federal government taking over insurance.

Gompers is going to the national conventions and advocating more government ownership for purposes of operation, as he calls it. Investors and people who plan expenditures might as well take notice. —Pacific Manufacturer.

FINESSING IN THE game of politics to pick a likely Democratic candidate for president of the U. S. A. this year is like selecting a good dummy to be knocked down in the carnival tent. Voters will ring the bell too.

WHEN IT COMES to representatives at Washington from California the requirements are for men who truly represent the interests of the Golden State or the district from which they come. Party lines have been so obliterated and we are so at variance on big issues that it matters little whether our Senators or Congressmen are Democrats or Republicans. Noteworthy examples of true California representatives in sentiment and principal are Senator Phelan and Congressman Lea. They have been a credit to the state in every particular. They are energetic workers and high type citizens without any of the grimy qualities of some politicians and without any of the blatant flamboyance of the demagogue.

FIRE DEMON DID DAMAGE AT GLEN OAKS

R. B. Swayne's Place Saved After Heroic Fight Last Friday Evening.

The Glen Oaks ranch was the scene of a lively blaze last Friday evening, and the handsome home of R. B. Swayne near Glen Ellen was only saved from total destruction by the heroic efforts of volunteer fire fighters and the Boyes chemical, which as usual was on the scene to give assistance. The fire started from a local oil stove in the kitchen and soon enveloped the rear of the premises. Help was summoned immediately and Supervisor Weise who was having in his field near by, led the fire fighters to the scene of the conflagration and rendered very effective aid. The Boyes Springs Fire Department also responded and did effective work in confining the fire to the kitchen and annex.

This was the third fire of the day, at 3:00 o'clock a fire completely destroyed the Otto Brandt residence at Schellville and another fire having started in Sonoma Highlands. The Boyes little Red Devil was on the job in each case.

TEACHERS OF SONOMA TO GET INCREASED PAY

Both High School and Grammar Trustees Accede to Requests for Better Salaries Next Term.

The teachers employed in the Grammar and High Schools of Sonoma will get substantial raises of salary next term. The trustees have been cognizant of the need of our educators for some time past and have seen the necessity of offering more money to the teachers or being confronted with vacancies such as have occurred in Ukiah and other places where salaries were regarded as too small. The Sonoma trustees were conservative at the start and as a result, two offers by the High School Board were turned down flat by the High School faculty. It is now believed that a satisfactory arrangement has been entered into whereby Principal Golton will remain at $2800 per year and other of the High School teachers at $1750.

The Grammar trustees declare that they will grant all the increase that taxes make possible. The Supervisors are being urged to increase the tax rate to meet the extra expense of operating schools in Sonoma County.

The company does not propose to carry passengers between Vallejo and Napa.

MRS. MOLLIE JOHNSON AND DAUGHTERS IN AUTO WRECK

Mrs. Molly Johnson and daughters including Mrs. Earl Cavin, had a narrow escape last week in an auto accident near Sacramento. The Johnsons formerly resided here and Mrs. Carvin, (Mollie Kathleen) was recently married. Sonoma friends will be glad to hear of the fortunate escape of the travelers. The Crockett Signal had the following to say of the accident:

"An automobile driven by Earl Cavin was badly wrecked near Sacramento Saturday when a bolt in the steering gear became loosened and the car became unmanageable and plunged down a steep embankment. With Mr. Cavin on his trip were his wife and his wife's mother and two sisters, Mrs. Mollie Johnson and the Misses Lillian and Etta Johnson. The occupants were all thrown out of the car and all received severe bruises except Mrs. Cavin and Miss Etta Johnson. Mr. Cavin says it is a great wonder they were not all killed."

E. G. Perkins was over from Vallejo last Saturday arranging in regard to the series of afternoon concerts by the Philharmonic Orchestra which he is to introduce to the public on the 20th of this month at Agua Caliente Springs. Mr. Perkins tried to secure the celebrated celloist B. Spiller who played at the Orpheum in San Francisco for 16 years and since his retirement has played off and on at Fellers theatre, but owing to Mr. Spiller's advanced age—73 years—he could not be induced to accept the engagement.

AUTO HITS BRIDGE INJURES DRIVER

Holiday Accident Here Results In Injuries to Penngrove Man.

While driving his car along the Sonoma road about 4 miles above the Springs, Mr. Wilson of Penngrove, accompanied by the Dolls of that locality, ran into a stone bridge and were badly injured. Wilson jammed his head through the windshield as the machine hit the bridge with terrific impact. He was frightfully cut about the head, face and neck. Assistance was summoned from a neighboring farmhouse and first aid given the injured man. Dr. Hays was then summoned and had Wilson conveyed to his office where he took 25 stitches to close the wounds resultant from the accident.

WHITE SHELL CLUB COMPLIMENTS A BRIDE TO BE

The White Shell Club gave a pretty afternoon last week complimentary to Miss Marie Helberg, fiancée of Leonard L. Thomas. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Potter and after a pleasant hour or two spent in sewing and social converse, tea was served.

In the center of the prettily appointed table was a hand painted tea set of exquisite pattern. Not until Mrs. E. H. Cliff of the White Shell ladies arose to present the dainty cups and saucers and all that went with them, to the guest of honor, did Miss Helberg realize that she was to be made so handsome a present. The love and good wishes of the club for the young lady was voiced in the appropriate remarks made by Mrs. Cliff. Many kind genuine were the congratulations bestowed by the club on their young friend.
